Three sponsorship lanes

Sponsored opening-week review

From P25,000

Disclosed, honest, on the week your film matters most. The audience plans their week around what to watch.

Gear testing program

From P40,000

Projectors, soundbars, headphones, 4K players. Tested across real films, written up next to the verdicts.

Brand partner placement

From P15,000

Cinemas, premium snacks, watch-party tie-ins. Disclosed, with real reach numbers, with a real review attached.

Who reads it

Educated Philippine cinephiles who plan their week around what to watch. CFOs by day, cinephiles by night. The same buyer your cinema, distribution, or brand already serves. A reader who has stayed for 126,349 words of prose is not casual and not noisy.

Honesty rule

Every paid placement is disclosed at the top of the post. The review writes what the review writes. If the film does not work, the verdict says so. Sponsors keep the slot regardless of the star count, that is what makes the audience trust both sides.
